

Renters' program accepting applications

PLAINFIELD -- The staff of the Plainfield Assessor's Office are accepting applications for the Connecticut Renters' Rebate Program, a state of Connecticut tax relief program that aids elderly and disabled people who rent an apartment and who have paid a large amount of rent and utilities as compared to their income.

To qualify, an applicant must be 65 or older or totally disabled; have lived in Connecticut for one full year; single people must have an income of $27,700 or less and married people must have a combined income of less than $33,900.

This program runs from May 15, 2006 through September 15, 2006

Refund checks are sent out by the State of Connecticut and normally received in November or December.

For more information, call the assessor's office at 860-230-3008.